ORDER

KIMBA M. WOOD, U.S.D.J.:

Plaintiff Sweet People Apparel, Inc. seeks a default judgment against Lazeon Corporation, unknown companies ("XYZ Companies 1-10"), and unknown individuals ("John & Jane Does 1-10") (collectively, "Defendants"), on its complaint alleging that Defendants violated § 501(a) of the Copyright Act by (1) willfully copying Plaintiff's copyrighted JG5498B Design, and (2) manufacturing, importing, advertising, and selling products with the infringing design.

The Court has reviewed Plaintiff's submissions and holds that Plaintiff has made sufficient showing to warrant the entry of a permanent injunction. Accordingly,

1. Lazeon Corp. and all of those acting in concert with it, including agents and servants, and all those on notice of this suit, are hereby permanently enjoined from designing, manufacturing, importing, exporting, distributing, supplying, advertising, promoting, offering for sale and/or selling any products which bear the infringing design, or any other designs substantially similar in overall appearance to Plaintiff's JP5498B Design;
2. Lazeon is hereby ordered to recall all products, advertising, and promotional materials bearing the infringing design, and to deliver up to Plaintiff for destruction all such products and materials, and any means of making such items, within fifteen (15) days following the entry of this Order.

Although Plaintiff has also made a sufficient showing for a default judgment, the record lacks any mention of (1) Defendants' gross revenues, (2) information concerning any deductible expenses, and (3) the elements of profit attributable to factors other than the unlawful copying. Such information is required to appropriately calculate what, if any, damages are owed to Plaintiff. See 17 U.S.C. § 504(b).

Defendants are ordered to produce such information by January 9, 2015. Service of this Order upon Lazeon Corporation, 246 West 38th Street, 2d Floor, New York, NY 10018, shall constitute adequate notice of the entry of this Order.

SO ORDERED.
